Christine Hubbard was a great friend to all of us. There are many memories we've shared. The fondest recollection was inviting her into our group and having her create these wonderful memories of our time together. Even though she's not here, she's in our thoughts every day. We love you and we will always miss you.

Dedication

This yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Kaseta and Mrs. Kaprove for their help and support through our high school years.

Saying Goodbye

*They tell us saying goodbye is never easy.
You feel that something has ended,
And that your heart can never be mended,
Others say not to worry but you know it won't be easy.*

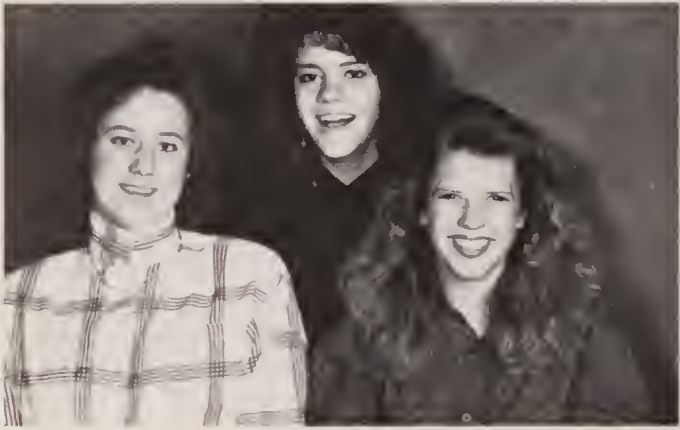

*You've shared the good and you've shared the bad.
The years seem to pass so quickly as you look back.
The remembrances you had, you now seem to lack.
Yet the ones you remember are the good times you had.*

*These are the years you will never forget.
We will cherish them always and forever.
As we each go our separate ways,
Some see a beginning and some see an ending.
Yet as the time grows near we all live in some fear.*

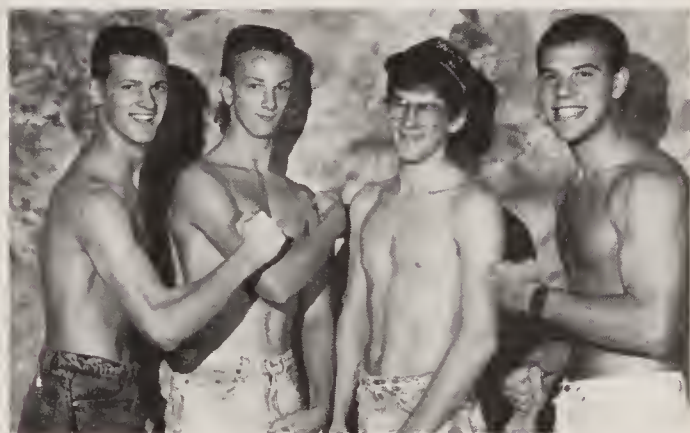

*The fear of loving . . . The fear of:
Saying goodbye.*

— Valerie Church

Class History

We began our Junior year with Alyssa Pillion, Stacey Thibeault, Kim Boutin and Melinda Groves. Our Pep Rally theme, "Panthers Bop Till You Drop," left us in third place. We ended our Junior year with the prom held at the Skyline, on May 18, 1990. With our prom Queen, Jennifer Edwards, and her court, Kim Boutin, Krystal Miarecki, Kelly O'Brien, and Angela Mansfield, we ended a fabulous evening with our theme "One Night In Heaven" and theme song, "Love Song" by Tesla.

Our Senior year started out with a bang. Kim Boutin, Julie Schnobrich, Stacey House and Gabe Gaudreau led the class in one of the most successful magazine drives, raising $13,300 for their Senior activities. They entered the Pep Rally with a positive attitude and a theme "Panthers Take Over the Seas." We ended our Senior year with the Senior Banquet held on Friday, May 31, 1991 at The Oaks in Agawam. Our Senior outing held at High Meadows, in Granby.

With the help from Mr. Kaseta and Mrs. Kaprove we entered our Freshman year with Tim Masters, Colleen Woodward, Kim Boutin and Katy Colthart leading our class. We ventured into our first Pep Rally with the theme, "Panthers Beat the Heat." Although we came in last we learned what was expected for the upcoming years.

Our Sophomore year brought much excitement for us. With Katy Colthart, Alyssa Pillion, Kim Boutin and Gabe Gaudreau leading us, we entered our second Pep Rally with the theme "Panthers Knock Them Out," bringing us a third place. We chose Herff Jones for our ring company and received our class rings. We ended our Sophomore year with a successful candy drive.

Prophecy

Sandy Albertson: I will be on a world tour with Madonna.

Peter Allbee: Teaching Science at East Windsor High School; I will take over Mr. O'Konis's job.

Wendy Aldrich: Managing my own law firm and on the side I'll still be working at Bradlees trying to tell them I quit.

Fernanda Bahu: In the future I will probably become an Economist.

Janine Bancroft: In ten years I will be in Sports Illustrated's swimsuit issue.

Missy Bentley: In 10 years I will finally think I'm ready for marriage.

Marc Betancourt: I will be living in Vermont as a State Cop.

Althia Bonnar: In ten years I will own my own paper bag factory.

Kim Boutin: I will be living in Wyoming with Ron on our 5,000 acre horse farm.

Hung Bui: I'll be captain of the drug bust forces in New York City and in my free time I'll be designing my own brand of clothing.

Lori Caine: Head of a corporate travel agency and on my way to Europe.

Tammi Canora: In ten years I'll be finishing my PhD and hopefully engaged to Laz and move to Boston.

Heather Chessey: In ten years, I will finally marry Billy after going out for 12 years.

Amy Chester: Working as a director for animation at Walt Disney.

Brian Chicoine: I will be on my fifth world tour with the Fallen Angels. Also I will be presumed dead by many rock tabloids.

Val Church: I'll be in a hospital helping children through hard times with counseling. In my spare time I'll be going to dance clubs wearing the funkier outfits, and acting like the most outgoing person.

Katy Colthart: I'll be helping disturbed people get through times with my counseling and in my spare time I'll be seeing one of my associates.

Jen Cox: In ten years, I'll be 28 and just finishing Medical School. I will work in a hospital and hopefully find the home of my dreams.

Jim Devanney: I'll be a beach bum lifeguard in Florida, and EMS Instructor at night.

Danny Donahue: I'll be living in Canada hunting and fishing.

Evan Donahue: Still trying to figure out what I'm going to do.

Jenn Edwards: Paralegal secretary and living happily.

Kevin Fisher: I will probably be some kind of artist; or maybe a singer or something like that.

Philip Foley: In ten years I hope to be a State Police Officer with a remarkable career record behind me.

Karl Fortier: In 10 years, hopefully I'll be married, making an astronomical pay for a successful company as a graphic/computer designer and living happily.

Nikki Gagne: In 10 or so years Stacey and I will probably take a joy ride to Springfield and break down again; but this time we'll have to call our husbands instead of my father.

Gabe Gaudreau: In 10 years, I will be General Manager of Cohoes in East Windsor and still making $4.50 an hour.

Melinda Groves: I will be helping as many troubled children as possible as a Child Psychologist.

Victoria Hills: I will be on a plane traveling around the world with the one I love.

Adam Korb: I'll be on my way to work in my Ferrari. The job would be designing and constructing experimental air frames. I'll be manager of my department making over $100,000 a year.

Stacy Larson: In 10 years I think I will still be in college studying to be a doctor of Psychology.

Angela Mansfield: I'll be dancing on In Living Color, dating Bobby Brown and dishing Vanilla Ice.

Tim Masters: Still single, skiing somewhere in the Alps, hopefully on two legs.

John Matthews: Married with two children, working at an Engineering firm, while drawing cartoons for real money.

Paul Mayon: Be in a major band on a major record label. World tours, selling out arenas around the world or selling Didi 7 door to door.

Jen McCain: I plan to have started my career as the spokeswoman for Cover Girl lipstick.

John Melnick: In 10 years I will be the head of my own Parish telling other people what to do for a change.

Krystal Miarecki: I'll be married to Bill, have a successful career, and hopefully be rich.

Michael Moriarty: Rich beyond his dreams as a pilot flying sleek business jets across the country.

Greg Moule: Living at home with my mother and working for the company my father is going to own.

Jeff Moule: I hope to be very well off; I hope to have a special wife and two kids.

Charlie Nordell: I might luckily be married and be a successful photographer living in upstate New York.

Kelly O'Brien: Working at a huge corporation as Vice President and taking the President's parking spot.

Chas Phimvongsa: I will be a well educated nurse working in a nursing home or hopsital. I will be married to Po and have at least 3 kids. And living in a big house with everything in it.

Mike Quesnette: On tour somewhere in the United States.

David Rasmussen: I want to become an Orthopedic Surgeon in Connecticut, with a large home in the town of Greenwich, Fairfield, or Somers.

Robert Riley: Dead.

Danielle Ryan: In ten years, I see myself as owner of my own Day Care chain with the logo "Over 1 million diapers changed."

Andrea Smith: I'll be out somewhere still partying and living life to its fullest, making people laugh.

David St. Pierre: I might become a mechanic in my later years. I'm really not sure yet, but I would like to say I hope I work with Chris Belmonte someday, he is one of my best friends at EWHS.

Colleen Woodward: First flight nurse of Lifestar 3.

Jon Wyse: I hope to be singing successfully — somewhere.

Alyssa Pillion: Alyssa will be taking over Drake's job torchering children.

Julie Schnobrich: Julie will still be running the track except now she'll be running it for Alyssa instead of Drake.

A Picture Is Made

A red glow
in a darkened room hiding
and fooling
the lifetime
freeze
of time that only took an instant
to make.
Developing
the secrets man made to hold time
in place
are done
and time begins
to freeze forever

THE BLOODMOBILE

The East Windsor High School student body has participated two years in a row to make our bloodmobile a success.

Sponsored by Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) and the student council, the bloodmobile relies on student volunteers and the American Red Cross.

This year, the Bloodmobile is more popular than ever. Students, teachers, staff and outside people all contributed to make it the best ever.

Willie, we know you can do it! Best of luck always. — Love, Mom, Dad and Bob

May all your dreams come true. We'll always be there for you. Love — Mom, Dad and Jessica.

To Adam, best luck in the future and we love you. Mom and Dad

To our daughter, Pudge, we love you and wish you success + happiness always. We are so proud of you. — Love, Mom, Dad & Jeff

To Katy, our other daughter. We're proud of you too! — Love, Mr. & Mrs. R, Chris, David and C.J.

To John, our other son. Keep up the good work — you'll go far! — Love, Mr. & Mrs. R, Chris, David and C.J.

Nikki, best of luck to you in the future. We love you. — Mom, Dad and the family.

Stacy — Best of luck in the future. We love you and are very, very proud of you! — Love, Mom and Dad

Val, go after your dreams — only you can make them come true. I'm proud of you! — Love, Mom

Stacey — we love you and wish you the best. — Love, Mom & Dad

To B. J. Kruzel — Even after all you have said I still will remember some of the better times; however I'm glad that it's over for I am much happier now.

To G. Croft (form, not farm), A. Stick, K. O'Konis, B. Gilson, D. Castelli and J. Cezus — thanks, I think I'm gonna make it.

To Kelly — I think you look good in body and soul, you will always be in my mind and in my heart, I love you. Karl Punkie, may your future be always bright and all your dreams come true. You are very special. All our love — Dad, Mom, Andy & Tim Congratulations, David. We are so proud of you! Love — Dad, Mom, Chris and C.J.

Tammi, you bring sunshine into our lives every day. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Julie, best of everything in life to a real "jewel" of a daughter. — Love, Mom and Dad.

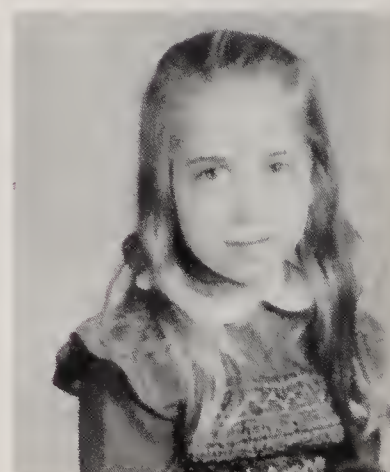

Kelly: We love you and best of luck in the future. Love — Mom + Dad

You're still our "wonder woman" Kate. We're so proud of you. Love — Mom and Dave

Kim, Good luck in the future. Love — Mom & Dad

Carol! Some friendships are special. Ours is one of them. Love, Mom

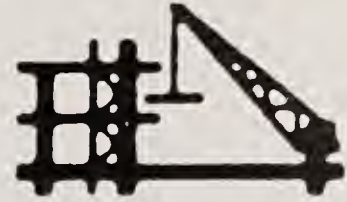

East Windsor High School is to some a place to spend their days during their teens, but it has offered a lot more to me. I would like to offer a final good-bye to all my friends, and the teachers who have been so kind. To all those who have not yet finished EWHS, my recommendation is to enjoy it, because it will be the best four years of your life. Good luck to all. Good bye. Brian Baude
